Subject: NDS EXFOR Manual

Recently we sent out information copies of our NDS EXFOR Manual. To avoid confusion, I wish to recall that the "official" EXFOR Manual is maintained by NNDC from where you recently received update pages in form of X4-Memos.

The NDS EXFOR Manual contains, in addition, some NDS-internal items, some of them related to the NDS EXFOR ~~cheat~~ programme. It also contains a number of minor clarifications resulting from our discussions with EXFOR-newcomers, but we did not find it worthwhile to submit such changes as proposals for the "official" EXFOR Manual. The NDS EXFOR Manual does not show marks indicating the changes made. Only the date at the bottom of the page indicates whether there was a recent change.

In EXFOR discussions among the Centers, kindly always refer to the NNDC EXFOR Manual.
